DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 31,32,39,40,49 and 51 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

It is unclear as to what applicant is claiming, since these claims appear to contain process limitations and they all depend from an apparatus claim.

If applicant is attempting to claim a process the claims do not set forth any steps involved in the method/process, it is unclear what method/process applicant is intending to encompass. A claim is indefinite where it merely recites a use without any active, positive steps delimiting how this use is actually practiced.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

Art Unit:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459

(1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35

U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
  2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
  3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
  4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.
5. Claims 30-61 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Kaule in view of Majumdar..

Kaule discloses the claimed invention except for the use of polyethylene dioxthiophene polystyrene sulfonyl in its security element.. Majumdar teaches that it is well known in the art to use a polyethylene dioxthiophene polystyrene sulfonyl in a security document. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to provide Kaule with a polyethylene dioxthiophene polystyrene sulfonyl in its security element in the manner as taught by Majumdar in order to provide the assembly with another deterrent to fraudulent tampering.

Art Unit:

In regard to claims 33,36 and 37, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to use the claimed combinations of materials, since it has been held to be within the general skill level of a worker in the art to select a known material on the basis of its suitability for the intended use as a matter of obvious design choice. In re Leshin, 125 USPQ 416.

In regard to claims 42-48, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to arrange the support/foil layers in any desired arrangement, since it has been held that rearranging parts of an invention involves only routine skill in the art. In re Japikse, 86 USPQ 70.

Response to Arguments

6. Applicant's arguments filed 3/14/03 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

In regard to applicant's remarks concerning the "camouflaged" nature of his assembly the examiner submits that a recitation of the intended use of the claimed invention must result in a structural difference between the claimed invention and the prior art in order to patentably distinguish the claimed invention from the prior art. If the prior art structure is capable of performing the intended use, then it meets the claim. In a claim drawn to a process of making, the intended use must result in a manipulative difference as compared to the prior art. See In re Casey, 152 USPQ 235 (CCPA 1967) and In re Otto, 136 USPQ 458, 459 (CCPA 1963).
